History

The Tree House Gallery and Tea Room, or the “front” house of Olde Avon Village, is the original farmhouse of the Mathias Alten property, built in the Georgian Colonial style around 1850. Alten came to the United States from Germany in 1845 where he married Gertrude Weber. They raised nine children in this house, willing the home and part of the acreage to the youngest child, Rosa. In 1896 Rosa married Peter Casper, thus the designation “Alten-Casper House” to indicate the first and last families to actually use the house as a family home.
